Leaped to Death.

Mr. James Bullock, who lived near Smallhouse, Ky., suicided in a most peculiar and tragic manner last Friday night.

He had been in very ill health of late and his mind had become somewhat affected. On the night mentioned he seemed to be in a fit of temporary insanity and his actions were peculiar. His family suspected nothing serious and were trying as best they could to minister to his wants. Finally he called for a drink of water, and while a relative was absent on this errand, he arose from his bed with nothing on but his night clothes and made a bolt for the door. This he succeeded in reaching just as the relative returned with the water. He threw wide the door and with a wild cry, leaped out into the night. At break neck speed he dashed towards Green river, a few hundred feet away. The members of his family followed as fast as they could, but they could not succeed in catching up with him. Near the water's edge, in the direction he was running, was a high bluff or precipice, overlooking the deep waters of Green river. Toward this cliff he ran with speed like a deer. He never paused nor checked his speed when he got to the brink, but leaped far into the water and sank to rise no more.

Every effort was made to recover Mr. Bullock, alive or dead, but to no avail. He had leaped to death as certainly as death overtakes us all. Finally, after continued search, his body was seen Monday floating far down the river near Runnsey and was recovered, brought home and buried.

Commencement.

The closing exercises of Hartford College will take place this week, commencing to-day.
The Rhetoric class will deliver their speeches this afternoon at the college, commencing at 2 o'clock. Beautiful programs will be furnished the audience and the exercises will be of a high order.

To-night, commencing at 8 o'clock Miss Carrie Werner's music class will give a recital. There will be sixteen numbers from the best composers. Lovers of high-class music will find rare enjoyment by attending the entertainment to-night.

To-morrow (Thursday) night the annual address will be delivered to the graduates. Dr. W. S. Danley, of Owensboro, will address the class. Dr. Danley is a fluent speaker, an orator of recognized ability, and his address will no doubt be replete with logic and good points.

Friday night will be commencement proper. Upon that occasion the graduating class will deliver their orations, followed by the presentation of diplomas. The programs for Friday night's entertainment are the most beautiful ever issued for a Hartford College function and will serve as souvenirs of the occasion. These programs and also those of Miss Werner and the Rhetoric class were all issued from THE HERALD office, and as works of art, will be found first-class.

These exercises close a very successful year for Hartford College, and many of the students now leaving will no doubt return in the fall. The annual catalogue and year-book of Hartford College for the present and next school years is now being printed in THE HERALD job rooms and will be issued in a few days. It will, as usual, be a fine piece of work, the cover being especially elaborate. The faculty is complete and is as follows: T. J. Morton, President; O. M. Death After Baptism.

MEMPHIS, TENN., June 4.—Within less than three minutes after having received the sacrament of baptism and the benediction of his pastor, Jim Phillips was yesterday drowned in the waters in which he had been baptized in the presence of his congregation and other spectators.

The tragic incident occurred at the foot of Beale street.

Phillips had only a few nights before been received into the congregation of Avery Chapel, on Desoto street, and asked to be baptized. A number of the congregation had assembled at the river side to witness the ceremony. Phillips was led into the water by his pastor and after the final benediction, had gone aboard the steamer Wichita to put on dry clothing. He had scarcely stepped aboard the steamer when he became overcome with religious fervor and fell backward over the side of the boat. He came up several times as he was swept downward by the rapid current and at Dined Old Comrades.

Mr. I. P. Barnard, formerly a resident of Ohio county, gave a dinner last Thursday night at his residence, 1110 Third avenue, Louisville, Ky., to his surviving comrades of Company C, Sixth Kentucky, Orphans' Brigade, and other veterans. The dinner was seven courses, but was preceded by a tender of the original army ration—when it was at hand—hard tack and bacon. This was in no way scorned, and recalled hungry days when joy was brought to their hearts by the serving of this course.

The dining-room was handsomely decorated with Confederate flags, and the guests of honor were: Frank Chinn, C. C. Ambrose, A. J. Kirtley, J. S. Chinn, John Chinn, W. R. Chapman, S. W. Rowan, J. L. Collins, Dr. J. S. Morton, Judge Ben Newton, J. L. Taylor, C. T. Chinn, L. Reed, J. W. Yonts, Lient. J. W. Eord, Lient. Ford is the only surviving officer of this company. Other guests were: J. H. Nave, Company H, Eighth Kentucky; M. M. Bardwell, Sixth Mississippi cavalry; H. S. Midkiff, Sixth Mississippi cavalry; W. O. Holbrook, Tenth Kentucky cavalry; C. Hudson, Thirteenth Kentucky cavalry; and Mr. John Barnes, of Beaver Dam.

Mr. Barnard's old comrades were loud in their praise of their host's hospitality. It was developed at this reunion of Co. C, that only 16 of the 125 members now survive.

Convincing Logic.

It is stated at Frankfort that W. S. Taylor will not attend the Republican National Convention in Philadelphia.

To do so he would have to pass through the States of Ohio, West Virginia and Pennsylvania. It is said Taylor some days ago caused inquiry to be instituted as to whether Gov. Collier are expected to declare for Mr. Yerkes for Governor.

Taylor Made A Mistake.

[New York Tribune, Rep.]

We have believed from the first and repeatedly said, that the attempt to thwart the operation of the Goebel law by such means as Gov. Taylor employed was a mistake; that in defending his title he had gone to too great lengths, alienating for the time being at least the good will of many respectable citizens of Kentucky.

THE NEWS IN BRIEF.

No steps will be taken toward issuing a requisition for W. S. Taylor until the return to Frankfort next week of Sheriff Suter.

A Philadelphia machinery firm declines to sell goods to the navy department because the members of the firm are Quakers and opposed to war.

Gen. Joseph H. Lewis announces that he will be a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Governor and will issue a formal address soon. Judge W. B. Smith, of Richmond, in a speech at that place Monday, also announced his candidacy.

Gov. Beckham has issued an order to State Inspector Hines to investigate the books of the Republican usurping officials on State House square and their predecessors. Some of these alleged officials have asked time to consult their attorneys.

Last week was a banner one for sales of dark tobacco by Louisville warehouses, the total sales being 2,909 hogheads of dark, against 598 of Burley. The dark business was the largest probably ever done in one week on that market. Private sales were 1,315 hogheads. The market is stronger for both Burley and dark.

There is no official news from the Transvaal, but piecemeal dispatches indicate that six British columns are converging on Pretoria, and that the town is ready to surrender whenever formal demand shall be made of the burgo-master. Another dispatch says the War Council has determined to defend the town.

The Republican usurpers, while still claiming the State offices at Frankfort, are all absent from the Capital and the offices are in charge of subordinates. It is said a number of efforts at compromise have been made by the Republicans, but their overtures were refused by the Democrats. Some of the sureties on the Republican bonds are said to be anxious to be released.

In response to a Senate inquiry, Maj. Gen. McArthur has transmitted to the Secretary of War an estimate of the number of Filipinos killed, wounded and captured since the insurrection began. The number is placed at 10,780 killed, 2,104 wounded and 10,454 captured. There are now 2,000 prisoners of war. Only dangerous men and officers of high rank are retained as prisoners.

After a two days' debate, which at times was bitter and personal, the House Friday defeated the joint resolution proposing a constitutional amendment empowering Congress to regulate trusts. Two Republicans voted with the Democrats against the resolution, while five Democrats and one silver member voted with the Republicans in its support. The Populists were solidly against it.

GIRLHOOD, WOMANHOOD AND MOTHERHOOD

Are Renovated, Regulated and Restored by the Pelvic Catarrh Remedy Pe-ru-na.

Mrs. E. C. Everly.

Mrs. E. C. Everly, 605 Diamond Street, Philadelphia, Pa., says: "I feel well, never felt better; thanks for your attention and Pe-ru-na. I will be glad to do all I can in the way of advancing the sale of your valuable medicine. I do think Pe-ru-na the best medicine I have tried at any time. Since I began taking Pe-ru-na we have never been without it."

Read what an elderly woman says—a woman who has passed through all the phases, crises and experiences of girlhood, womanhood and motherhood: "I really believe that every woman in the world ought to have Pe-ru-na on hand all the time; for, if she gets tired, Pe-ru-na refreshes her; if she gets nervous, it soothes her; if despondent, it cheers and invigorates. It is a panacea for all irregularities of her monthly periods. It is a constant friend to the expectant mother; a never-failing stand-by to the nursing mother, both for herself and for her child, and finally when the change of life comes on, no medicine on earth is of equal efficacy to the woman in this critical period. Surely Pe-ru-na is the woman's friend."

That catarrh has any relation to barrenness in women is surprising to many. It is one of the mysteries of catarrh. This insidious disease penetrates to every organ of the body. Mrs. L. M. Griffith, of Cambridge, Neb., says: "You medicine did me a wonderful amount of good. It cured me of barrenness. I am thirty years old and had never borne any children, but since beginning your medicine I gave birth to a ten-pound baby girl. She is now six months old, and weighs twenty-five pounds. My friends were all surprised. Some would not believe it until they came to see me. My husband says he never saw such a change in anyone as there was in me after I had taken three or four bottles of Pe-ru-na. I am stronger than I have been since I was quite young. God bless you and your medicine forever."

* Address Dr. Hartman, Columbus, O. for free catarrh book.
